How many chests in last wish raid

Your chat (FB/Discord/Web-site) is the control panel for your orders. You send us your question and our support team finds an answer. We keep things easy! Let's take a closer look. To ensure the order is done correctly and in time we: Find the right player or team Give him or them the order details Set up a convenient interaction between you and the player(s) What happens after the payment? The order starts after your payment is confirmed. After that the support team connects to your chat: First, they clarify the order details and specify your wishes (stream/convenient playing schedule/etc.) Then they assign unique tags to your order, depending on what needs to be done (PvP/PvE/etc.) From then on, the support team is responsible for your order until it is completed Time to find the player(s)! What do you mean by "find a player"? Aren't they ready? LFCarry is a massive platform where we invite you the best PRO-players. We cannot let them sit idle - otherwise, they will get bored and leave to look for other work. To mitigate this, we assign players as soon as an order arrives on our platform. Each order has an estimated completion date, we set up orders so that they go one after another. This rule works without exceptions and helps make both customers and players happy. Finding a player: Each pro player in our system has tags which are based on his skills and successfully completed orders (PvP/PvE/etc.) These are the same tags that we use for orders Players whose tags match the tags of your order receive a notification - a new order has appeared Those who are interested, respond. Now we have a shortlist of suitable players The support team checks each player's profile and approves the player who fits best The rest of the players remain on the list as potential replacements in case you want to replace your first player Important: Players only see the order's title and description. They don't see your personal information (name, mail, etc.) until the support team approves them for your order. How do I know if everything is ready? Do I need to ask for updates? You will receive a notification as soon as a player is assigned to your order Our support team reveals to the player your order details and information Our support team connects your chat with the player's chat - now you can contact them directly as well We are ready to start! During the service: You receive a notification from the player(s) each time they start or end a game session - you don't need to ask for updates Our support team is always online and ready to answer your questions You will also receive a notification when your order is finished and an invitation to review us on Trustpilot Who is the support team you are talking about? They are Petra Venj, Lord Shaxx, Lord Saladin, Xur, Ana Bray, Uldren Sov and others who don't enjoy the attention as much. Interesting mix, right? Keeping them all together is hard, but very worth it. They have one thing in common though - their goal is to support you 24/7, regardless of time zones, holidays and seasons. All Wishes for the Last Wish Raid Below is a complete list of all known wishes for the Wall of Wishes in the Last Wish raid. As new wishes are uncovered, they'll be added to the list below. Wish #1: Wish to Feed an Addiction Completing this Wish will grant you 1x Ethereal Key that you can use to open a chest at the end of the Last Wish raid. Click to enlarge. Inputting Wish 2 on the Wish Wall will make a chest spawn between Morgeth and the Vault. You'll need a Glittering Key in order to be able to open this chest. Click to enlarge. The 3rd Wish will unlock the  emblem. Click to enlarge. Wish 4 will wipe your fireteam and teleport you just outside of the Shuro Chi fight. From here, you can open the Raid chest under the bridge or start the fight against Shuro Chi. The Corrupted to farm Catalyst progress. Click to enlarge. Inputting the 5th Wish into the Wish Wall will wipe and teleport your fireteam right next to the rally flag location just outside of the Morgeth. The Spirekeeper fight. Click to enlarge. This Wish wipes your fireteam and teleports you to the Vault encounter in the Last Wish raid. Click to enlarge. Wish 7 teleports your fireteam to the final boss of the Last Wish raid, Riven of a Thousand Voices. Click to enlarge. The eighth wish will play the song, Hope for the Future, after being put into the wish wall. Click to enlarge. Wish Nine lets Failsafe, the AI from the Exodus Black on Nessus, share your body for the entire raid and will play dialogue throughout your time there. Click to enlarge. The 10th Wish lets The Drifter be on the comms during your time in Last Wish and will play lines dialogue throughout the raid. Click to enlarge. Wish 11 will add a cosmetic effect to headshot kills that sends fireworks into the air. (This is a purely cosmetic effect and does not make your character more or less lethal.) Click to enlarge. Putting the 12th Wish into the wish wall will put a random cosmetic on you and your fireteam members' heads. Click to enlarge. The 13th Wish essentially turns on Hard Mode for Last Wish by making it so that if a single player dies during Last Wish, your entire Fireteam is booted back to Orbit. This is also what's known as Petra's Run and is part of earning the Rivensbane title/seal. Click to enlarge. The fourteenth wish will cause a handful of Corrupted Eggs to spawn throughout the raid. These eggs are part of the Corrupted Omelette achievement. Click to enlarge. This wish has not yet been discovered, but it has been theorized that it may return when Guardians return to the Dreaming City to finally break the Curse once and for all. Recap The Wall of Wishes can be used by solo players or by raid teams and is an excellent way to skip fights or add an extra layer of difficulty to your run. Don't forget to double-check your wish before stepping on the platform. Having an incorrect glyph will wipe the wish from the wall and you'll have to start from scratch.
